Gold Foiled Praying Hands

15th century German artist Albrecht Dürer created one of the most recognized works of art, The Praying Hands, also known as The Hands of the Apostle. Today, the praying hands are a symbol of commitment and willingness to serve. The Regal Line has a considerable selection of products featuring "The Praying Hands" from register books to bequest envelopes to bookmarks.

With the "Lovely Card" poem

Interior Verse:

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, Or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent beautiful flowers, If so, we saw them there.
Perhaps you sent or spoke kind words, As any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all, Just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console the heart,
We thank you so much, whatever the part.

Free Regal Line Templates for Personalized Products

The templates can be accessed by going to www.RegalLine.com and downloading the templates using instructions online or below.

The Regal Line also offers a selection of verses in The Regal Line Catalog or you can view them at: www.RegalLine.com. If you have any questions or would like assistance with the templates you can e-mail us at: info@regalline.com.

Instructions for downloading Regal Line Templates:

Go to www.RegalLine.com at the top of the home page, position your pointer over the "Products" button.

1. Move your pointer over "Customized Templates" and click.
2. You will see a list of categories for the different types of products:
   - Bookmarks
   - Prayer Cards
   - Service Records
   - Church Bulletins
   - Register Book "Header-Only" Computer Pages
   - Acknowledgments
   - PDF fillable forms for Pre-printed Register Book Pages (Three standard inserts)
3. To download the templates, please click on the subcategory you wish to download.
4. You will receive a security warning, depending on which operating system your computer has. The warning may appear as a dialog box with the header: File Download – Security Warning. Within that box you will see the name of the template file, the type of application and From: www.RegalLine.com. Below that you will see three outlined buttons: "Run", "Save" or "Cancel". If you want to download that template you can click "Run". The file may download and the download will say "file.exe is not commonly downloaded and can be dangerous". You will see a button reading "Discard", to the right of that button there will be an arrow pointing down to indicate a menu is available, click on the down arrow and select "Keep".
5. If you open the download or click on the "Run" button in the dialog box, another dialog box may appear — it may warn you that your system cannot verify publisher — but downloading will not harm your computer. To continue, click on the button "Run". A second dialog box will appear reading: "Click "OK" to extract the Regal Line Template. In the next window, select "Unzip" to unzip the compressed files to your desktop. To continue click the "OK" button. The templates will automatically be saved to your desktop. You will see the message appear telling you how many files have been "Unzipped" successfully.
6. You can access the template in two ways: 1) by going to your desktop and double-clicking on the Regal Line template icon and then select the template and double-click to open; 2) Or you can open Microsoft Word® and under the "File" menu select "Open". Go to your Desktop folder, open the Regal Line templates folder and click on the template you wish to open. The template will then open in Microsoft Word®.
7. Once opening your chosen template, there are helpful instructions to guide you. We suggest you print or copy the instructions into another file to save for future reference.
